

Global Emerging Markets Fund

Andrew Ness
Co-Lead Manager

Andrew joins Martin Currie from SWIP, where he was an investment director on the global-emerging-markets equity desk. As portfolio manager, he managed SWIP's global-emerging-markets sustainability portfolios. As sector analyst, he was responsible for stocks across the financial sector in emerging markets. Before joining SWIP, he was a portfolio manager with Deutsche Asset Management in New York and London. He began his career with Murray Johnstone in Glasgow, where he managed his first emerging market mandates. Andrew is an Associate of the UK Society of Investment Professionals (ASIP) and holds a Master of Science in Business Economics from the University of Strathclyde in UK. He also holds a Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in Economics from the University of Strathclyde in UK.