

Greater China Fund

Kingston Lee
Chief Portfolio Manager

Kingston Lee heads the Hong Kong/China team and is responsible for Hong Kong/China investments and portfolios. He joined Nomura Asset Management-Hong Kong in 2004 and has 18 years of industry experiences. His established track record of managing Hong Kong/China funds has resulted in him being successfully involved in growing several mutual funds. His extensive experiences in portfolio management started in 1993 when he joined Schroder Investments Hong Kong where he spent 10 years. He rose through the ranks from Analyst to Portfolio Manager and Director at Schroder, focusing on analyzing and managing Hong Kong/China/Other Asian investments and developing his skill set. His sell-side experiences as Director and Head of Hong Kong/China Research at ING Asia Limited from 2003-2004 further provided him with an overall perspective of these markets. Before joining the asset management industry, he began his career in the auditing field as a Senior Auditor with Arthur Andersen in 1987 and later as a Senior System Auditor with Royal Bank of Canada in 1992. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst and holds a BA in Social Science from the University of Hong Kong.
