

International Equity Fund

Richard Bisson
Managing Director and Head of Investments

Richard Bisson is the Head of Investment at Nomura Asset Management UK and the Chairman of our Global Equity Strategy Committee. After reading Modern Languages at Oxford he joined James Capel Fund Managers in 1983 to help establish their institutional fund management capability. He concentrated on UK and European equities, becoming a Director of James Capel Unit Trust Management and of James Capel Fund Managers. In 1993 he moved to Lombard Odier's fund management operation in London where he was responsible for Continental European equities across a wide variety of portfolios. Since joining Nomura Asset Management in 1994 he has had responsibility for European portfolios, emerging market funds and for broader mandates such as Kokusai (Global ex-Japan) and EAFE.